3.6 (Cont'd.)

Also including the memorandum from Councilmember Maya Esparza, dated May 24, 2021 to accept the 5/21/2021 memo she coauthored with Councilmembers Peralez, Arenas, to:

1. Coordinate closely with the work of the County and the County Hate Crimes Task Force.

This should include adoption by Council of the resolution referred by the County Hate Crimes Task Force to the Board to Supervisors, which will be considered next month, and recommends the following:

a. That each law enforcement agency in Santa Clara County, including county, city, state, and campus police agencies, take these immediate steps:

i. Require all officers to take the POST learning-portal course “Hate Crimes: Identification and Investigation” as updated in August 2020, beginning with officers who have not taken any version of the course and proceeding to those who have taken prior versions.

ii. Reach out to affected communities in their jurisdictions to consult fully on changes and additions to their hate crime policies, including the requirements of Penal Code Sections 422.87 and 13519.6(c) and then adopt those changes and additions that the communities and law enforcement agencies agree upon or that are required by law.

iii. Publicly announce the above two steps.

iv. Work with the California Police Chiefs Association and California State Sheriffs’ Association to encourage them to support AB 57.

Additionally, pursuant to Council Policy Manual 0-11, return with a resolution apologizing for the past destruction of Chinatown and to also publish the County’s behavioral health hotline. (11-0.)

4. Caller “User 1” asserted it is ‘administrative tyranny’ to increase code enforcement.
5. Alex Shoor (Catalyze SV) addressed the need to work with flea market vendors that are being misplaced.
6. Katherine Mathewson suggested open space ideas in housing for caretakers of parklands.
7. Blair Beekman spoke to reimagining and addressing the military-prison-industrial complex.

ADJOURNMENT

The City Council meeting was adjourned at 11:06 p.m. in honor and memory of George Floyd. May 25, 2021 marks one year of the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis. His tragic death sparked community, national and global conversations about race and the inequities and injustices for Black Americans and people of color. While our community continues to heal from pain and anger, we must also continue to take action to dismantle structural and institutional racism.

George Floyd grew up in Houston, Texas, and was proud of his roots in the city’s Third Ward. He played basketball and football and was a star athlete in high school and college, with dreams of playing professionally. He was also a hip hop artist and mentored youth in his neighborhood, acknowledging his shortcomings to encourage others. Today, in memory of George Floyd and all victims of injustice, the City of San José stands committed to build toward a just, equitable and resilient future.
